The Piper '80

PIED PIPER SONG

Pied Pipers calling you and me
To do our very best.
Just see how high our standards fly
They're far above the rest.
Our banners call for truth and right
And never to retreat.
Lift high our colors green and white
They never know defeat.
So here we go, a loyal band
With courage and strength we stand.
Pied Pipers, we will follow you
Through victory or defeat.
To Hamlin High we will be true
When foes and friends we meet!

NINETEEN EIGHTY

THEME

we'll never walk this way

again

The doors of high school open each year welcoming students to grow emotionally, physically, and mentally, to achieve great success, to learn the meaning of constructive competition, to expand and explore creative attributes, and, finally, to arrive at the end of the senior year with a sincere recognition of personal and educational growth.

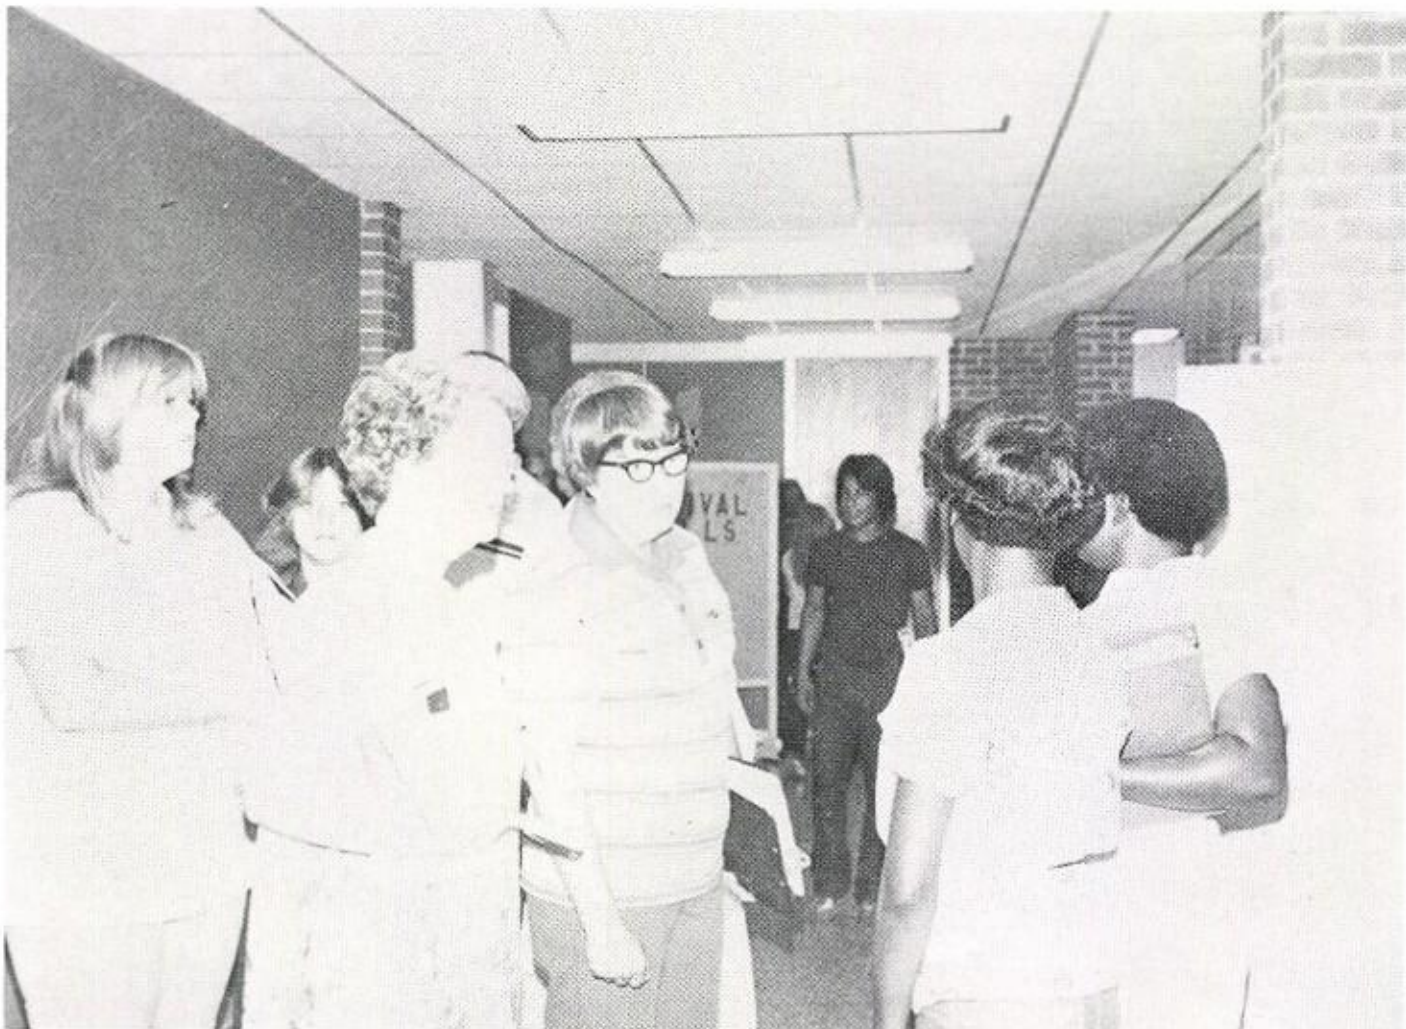

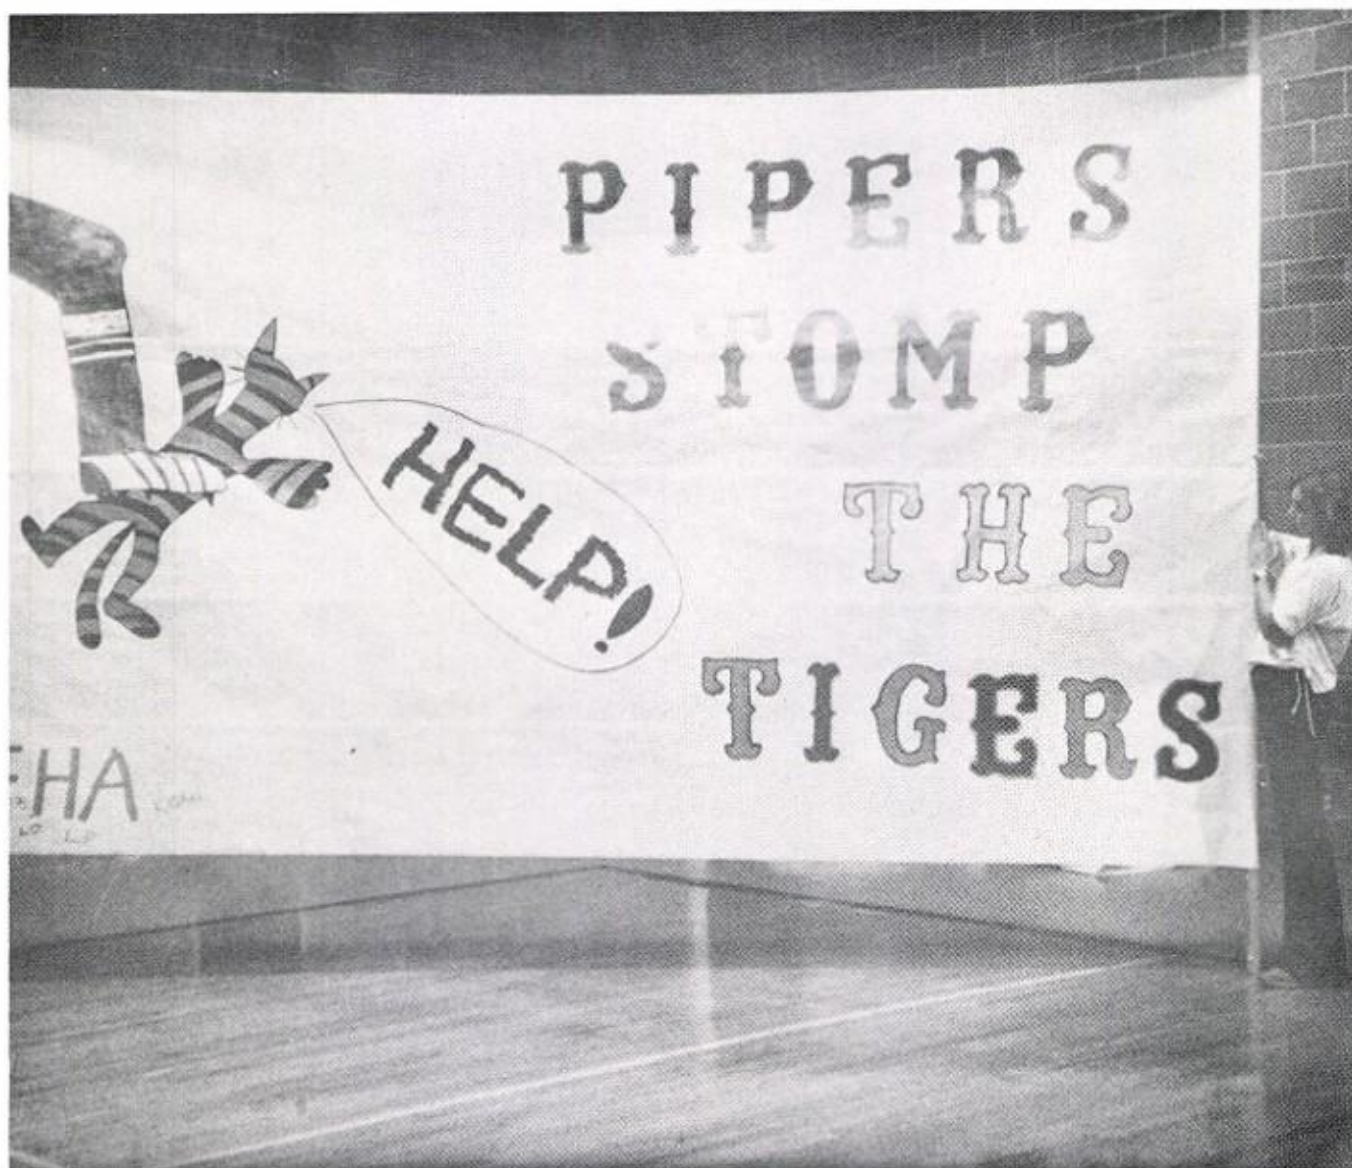

Does everyone remember what was there?

What are these two happy faces all about?

HHS has a good student-teacher relationship.

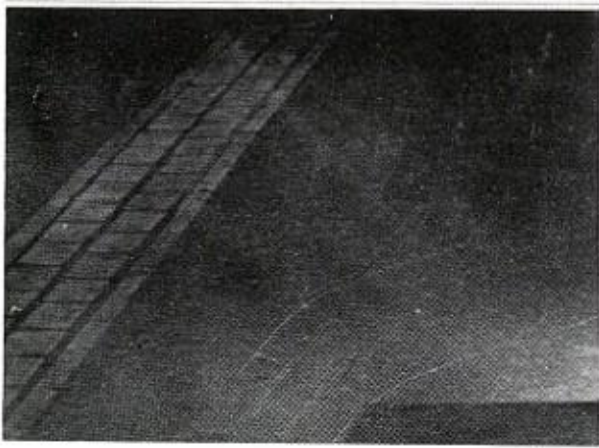

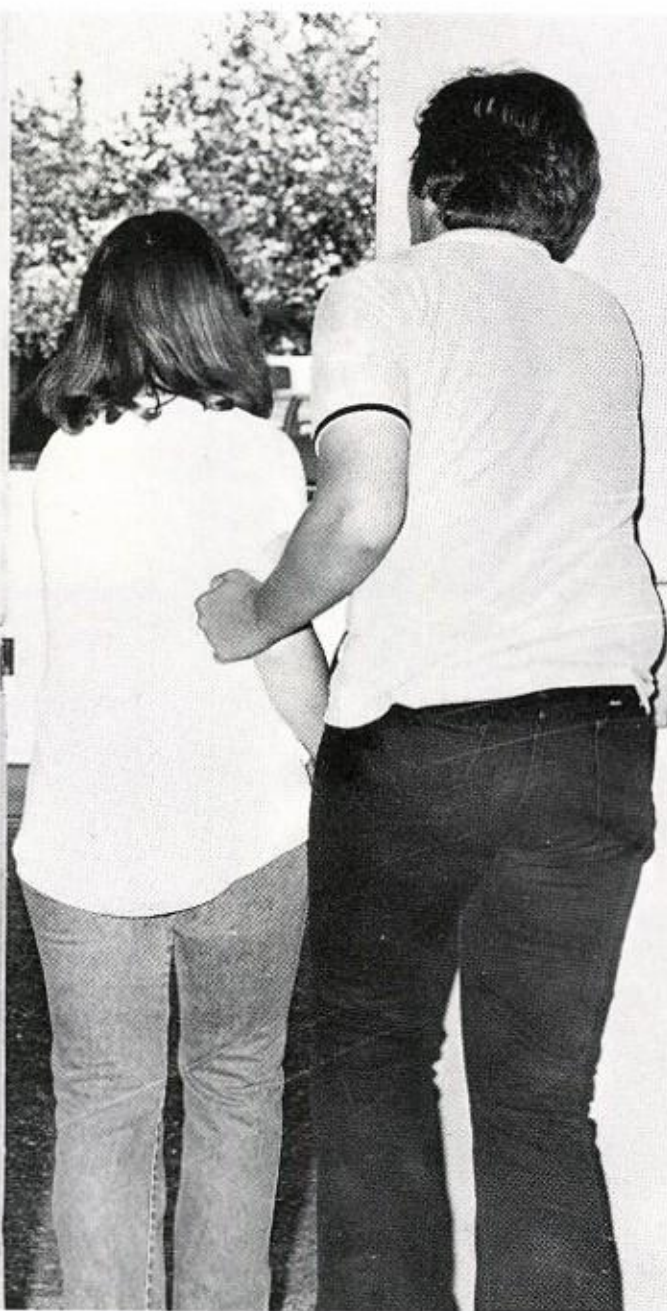

FHA Backs the Pipers with their runthrough sign.

The coaching staff is honored with a party.

Let us now with earnest hearts and with exalted faith and hope solemnly consecrate this building to its high and holy purpose. May the youth of this community for generations to come gather in this place to receive instruction in knowledge and training in virtue. May they find here every condition necessary to a true and enlightened education. Especially, may their teachers be examples of excellence in scholarship and character, seekers after goodness and truth, lovers of children, enthusiasts and adepts in the finest of all arts, the development and inspiration of human souls. May these rooms always be pervaded with an invigorating atmosphere of mental and moral life, and may no child pass from these schools to higher grades or to the outer world without having been made more intelligent, more thoughtful, more courageous, more virtuous, and in every way more capable of wise and just, of useful and noble living. To this end, may the blessing of God be more upon child and parent, upon pupil and teacher, upon principal and superintendent and upon every one whose influence will in any degree affect the work of education as it shall be conducted within these walls.

Dr. Paul Whitton, Jr.,
Superintendent

Mr. Russell Merket
Principal

Most people acknowledge that education is a fundamental force in molding the moral character of a nation and the people who live in it. In establishing this nation, the leaders recognized the immediate need for a system of public education. Education in itself is of little value, but when education of the individual leads to ideas, then education becomes the dominant factor in our development as a people. No group, no state, no society ever had an idea until an individual first conceived it. Groups and societies can never be more than the sum of the individuals who comprise them.

It is my hope that each of you take with you from this school a knowledge and appreciation of the dedication and sacrifice that has gone into the foundation of this nation. Hold fast to the ideas and ideals on which our nation was founded, never forgetting that free public education is the backbone of these ideas and ideals. In a period of sudden and drastic change as we are now experiencing it is apparent that education must develop the attitudes necessary to survive.

Let me urge you to continue to grow in knowledge and preparation for the changes yet to come. Education, whether obtained in the formal atmosphere of a college campus, or in the everyday business of living, is for but one purpose. That purpose is to better equip you to meet the challenge of change with high hopes and great expectations.

Paul Whitton, Jr.

While it is true and has been said that we only pass this way once, and that this moment in time can never be repeated, we either use it, or waste it. We meet people that ask too little of us, or too much of us. The key to life lies in the question, do we expect enough of ourselves, or too little? My suggestion is to use the talents you have, be the best you can, and challenge yourself daily.

Teacher of the Year

Completing his second year at HHS, Teacher of the Year, Ed Henry, possesses many traits which make him the recipient of this title. He serves as defensive coordinator to our Pipers, which is a difficult task; is freshman class sponsor; and teaches Algebra and Math to our HHS students.

Mr. Henry has three sons, Bill, senior; Don, sophomore who are both in high school, and Greg in Elementary. His wife Sue, is a teacher at the elementary school.

Some of Mr. Henry's hobbies include fishing and camping.

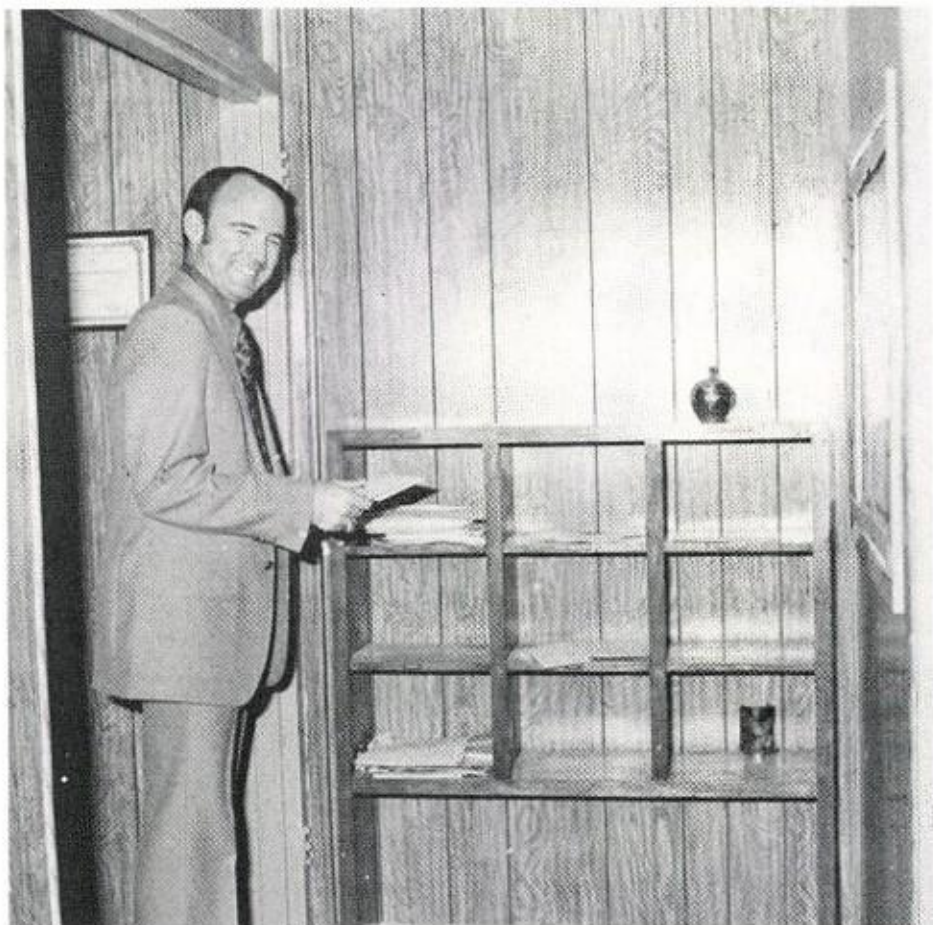

Becker and Carter

The 1980 Piper has been dedicated to Mrs. Rachel Becker because of her love and concern in her work, and in the students at Hamlin High School. She is always willing to give a helping hand and nothing she attempts goes undone.

Chosen for Dedication

The 1980 Piper has also been dedicated to Ms. Geneva Carter. She was chosen for her outstanding work in the classroom. She also directs the one-act-play and goes through many headaches with the annual staff. The 1979-80 annual staff is proud to dedicate the yearbook to two super people.

Dr. Whitton must have some really good mail.

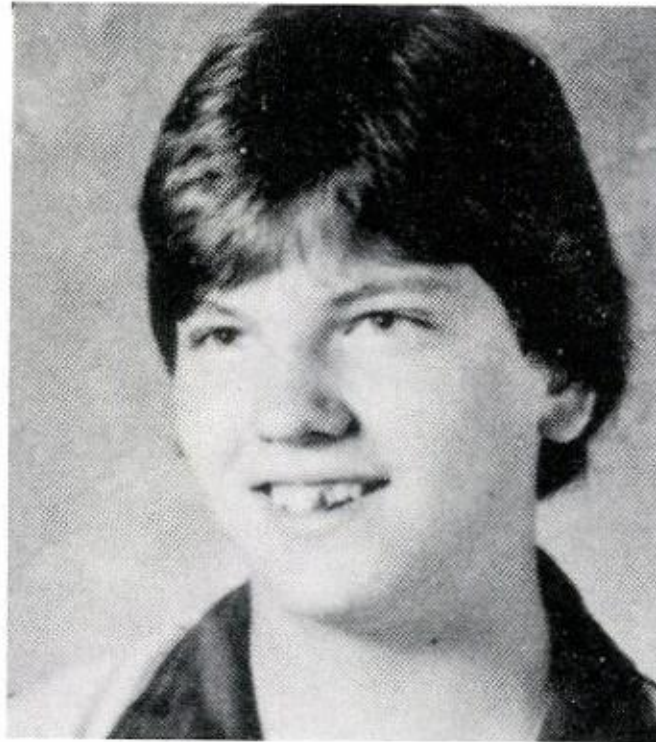

Mrs. Carter seems to know what she is doing—but do the other two?

Band helps back the Pipers with their spirit and enthusiasm.

Mrs. Carter takes a little time to rest from her weary day.

After many long hard hours, we have finally completed your PIPER. I do hope you will like and enjoy your PIPER 80. Every picture and word will be cherished in years to come. I would like to thank the entire staff and Stephanie Haught, a terrific person to work with, and special thanks to Ms. Geneva Carter, a wonderful sponsor. I hope this annual meets everyone's approval and pleasure.

Shanon Hinkle

It is hard to believe that the time has come for the seniors to be leaving Hamlin High and traveling their separate ways. It seems that just yesterday we entered high school as a group of very frightened, confused freshmen. The time has come for us to leave our friends and step into the world as mature young adults.

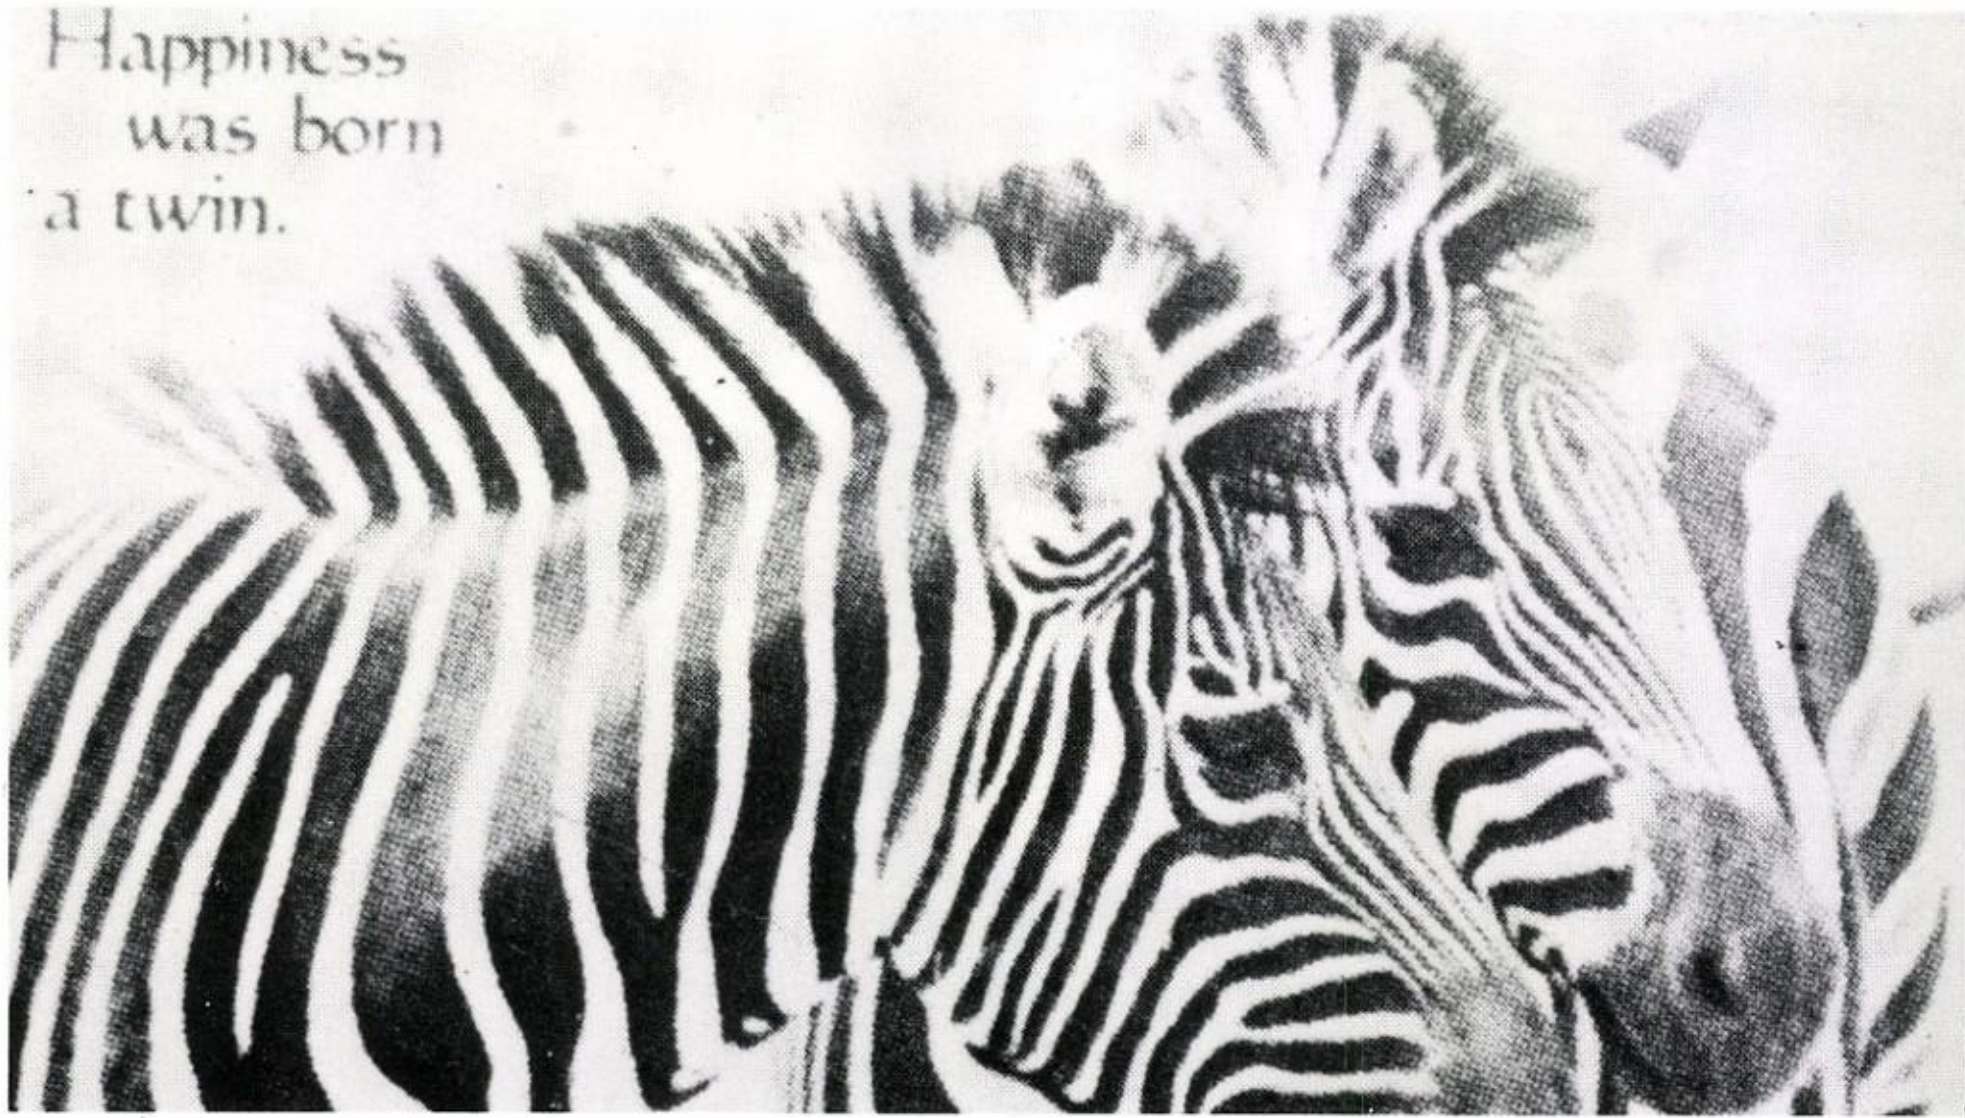

We have all encountered many obstacles during school—defeat in sports, failure on tests, and disappointment in our own personal lives. Nevertheless, the good has always prevailed over the heartaches.

I encourage everyone to take the time to give serious thought about the theme chosen for this annual—WE'LL NEVER WALK THIS WAY AGAIN. Make good use of your time, while in school. Each must choose his own road. Our high school pathway has ended; we have come to a fork in the road. The direction we turn may make all the difference. May your choice be a wise one.

Sincerely yours,

Stephanie Haught

WE'LL NEVER WALK THIS WAY AGAIN

We have just completed another year of school. The seniors now have a choice of pathways to follow. However, some are rejoicing and some are wishing they could turn back the hands of time and re-walk the path they have just completed. Consequently, we must face reality—WE'LL NEVER WALK THIS WAY AGAIN.

School is a valuable asset to one's knowledge. All of us were gifted with talents; although, it is evident that some did not use them to the full potential. Many do not realize the mistakes they are making. We encourage everyone to set a goal and put forth an effort to achieve it.

Now as we take the last steps of the path, we wish we had the time to tell everyone the values of school, but it is too late—the door is closing—we must be on our way. The key has been turned and this pathway is now only in the memory of our minds.

Haught and Hinkle
